

Dayton Daily News

News article from our archives at DaytonDailyNews.com/archives

Return to Document

• DATE: February 19, 2006

• PUBLICATION: Dayton Daily News (OH)

• SECTION: Business

• PAGE: D2

DAYTON TOOLING AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION The nonprofit trade association recently elected new board members and appointed others at its annual meeting held in January. They are Mike Collinsworth, president of Custom Manufacturing Solutions Inc.; and J.D. Claffey, president of Non-Ferrous Casting Co. Inc. Officers for 2006 are: Dave Harry, president of Gem City Engineering Co. (serving as DTMA president); and Michael Kalter, general manager, Behm Quartz Industries, (serving as DTMA vice president).

DEFENSE ACQUISITION UNIVERSITY (Midwest Region), Kettering

Travis L. Stewart has been selected dean of DAU's Midwest region. He entered federal civil service in 1979 and was appointed as a logistics management specialist for the then Air Force Acquisition Logistics Directorate at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. Prior to his current position, he served as associate dean of outreach for the Midwest region. The Midwest region is responsible for providing training and other learning assets to approximately 20,000 Defense Department personnel in 12 states.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CORP. (EDUC), Centerville

Kelly George was recently promoted to supervisor with Usborne Books, a division of EDUC. She is one of 350 supervisors across the country working to provide families, schools and libraries with educational children's books.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY, Dayton

The organization recently announced that four new members were chosen to serve on the Board of Trustees as well as a new Executive Committee for 2006. The new members to the Board of Trustees are: Doug Cline, senior vice president and financial advisor at Morgan Stanley and deputy mayor of Centerville; Patti Kemper, supervisory business analyst at ANTEON Corp. and retired Civil Service financial specialist at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base; Tanisha Jumper, program director, Unified Health Solutions; and Jennifer Meyer, primary school teacher for Sugarcreek Local Schools.

Serving on the 2006 Executive Committee are Charlie Chamberlain, president for a second year; Matt Hippenmeyer, newly-elected vice president; Don Taylor, continuing as treasurer; Rebecca Lightner to continue as secretary; and John Chambers and David Bohardt were elected to the Committee as members at large.

MARY SCOTT NURSING CENTER, Dayton

Richard Binenfeld was recently named executive director. A licensed nursing home administrator, he most recently served as executive director of Lincoln Crawford Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Cincinnati. He has also served as executive director for Orthodox Jewish Home, Cincinnati; and Jewish Vocational Services, Cleveland. Binenfeld is also an Ohio delegate to the American Association of Homes and Services to Aging.

He is a member of the Public Policy Committee of the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes and Housing for the Aging; a board member of the American Diabetes Association, Cincinnati Chapter; and board chairman of Cincinnati's Victory Neighborhood Services Association.

McCULLOCH, FELGER, FITE & GUTMANN CO. L.P.A., Piqua

Senior lawyer William B. McNeil was recently named as one of Ohio's top 100 Super Lawyers for 2006 and is listed in the 2006 edition of Best Lawyers in America. McNeil, named in the estate planning/trusts practice area, was named a Super Lawyer in 2004 and 2005. He is a fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and is past chair of the Board of Governors of the Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section of the Ohio State Bar Association.

PRIMESOURCE HEALTHCARE OF OHIO INC., Deerfield, Ill.

Recent promotions by the health care provider include Ken Liczwek to senior vice president and chief financial officer, Bobbie Richey to senior vice president of Clinical Services; and David Lennartz to senior vice president of Client Services.

Liczwek has experience in the financial field and is responsible for all financial controls and reporting.

Richey, who also serves as the company's primary liaison for its independent contractor physicians, has overall responsibility for patient care policies and procedures.

Lennartz is responsible for directing the sales and marketing activities of the client service representatives and ensures the company maintain the highest level of service to contracted, long-term care facilities.

RION, RION & RION, Dayton

John H. Rion was recently nominated and elected a fellow in the American Board of Criminal Lawyers in an election recently held in San Francisco. Standards for acceptance to the ABCL include successful major felony trial experience and exceptional recommendations from distinguished jurists and current fellows attesting to the candidates high ethics as well as litigation skills in the area of criminal defense.

SCHLEGAL CREATIVE RESOURCES, Dayton

John Yeutter recently joined the privately owned, digital design and marketing communications firm as a designer. He earned an associate's degree in applied business in advertising art from Kettering's School of Advertising Art. Schlegal Creative recently launched new Web sites for the City of Kettering and Miami Conservancy District and was just awarded a design services contract with Frazee Pavilion.

Copyright, 2006, Cox Ohio Publishing. All rights reserved.

- Dave Harry Dayton Tooling and Manufacturing Association

John H. Rion Rion, Rion & Rion
